Business Crimes: How Government Investigates and Remediates Fraud and Illegal Activity Affecting the Business Community

Join us for an update from District Attorney Todd Spitzer on the vision, philosophies, changes and plans for the Office of the District Attorney, followed by a panel discussion on government actions affecting business issues such as embezzlement, unfair competition, environmental compliance, and labor matters. When does government get involved? When your client has been harmed by illegal activity, how do you bring the matter to the attention of the government for law enforcement action? What do you do when the government knocks on your client's door?
